

YOUR attention is respectfully called to an important point not generally known, that a laxative should have a tonic element to successfully meet constipation.

Mr. John B. Capers, of 610 Pecan St., Fort Worth, Texas, had a significant experience in this particular. He was afflicted with a severe case of constipation and bowel trouble. He spent a good deal of money in trying to find a remedy. To his astonishment, Peruna very quickly relieved him of his bad symptoms. This happened a number of years ago. Since then, Mr. Capers states that he has had similar attacks of trouble, the prominent symptoms of which is constipation, and has always found prompt and efficient relief from Peruna. He says: "Up to the time I started using your Peruna, I could drink castor oil like water. It did no good. As for salts, they were of no use. Physicists of all kinds and classes were used, but we had to call on the fountain syringe for help." Peruna was able to correct this condition completely in Mr. Capers' case, and there is every reason to believe that it was the tonic qualities of Peruna, added to the laxative qualities, that procured this very desirable result.

PRESS COMMENTS.

Consolidates

The consolidation of the Madisonian and the Climax, the well-known Richmond weeklies, will make a strong newspaper. Hon. Grant E. Lilly who organized the Madisonian and has been its editor all the time, is one of the State's best thinkers and writers on topics of interest to the people of all classes. The craft will be glad to know that he is to continue in the business, as he will be a power in the journalistic field of Kentucky. Dr. W. G. White will continue as business manager.—Winchester Democrat

Col. Walton Sells Climax To Lilly

Col. W. P. Walton, the veteran journalist of Lexington, recently acquired a two-thirds interest in the Richmond Climax from his brother E. C. Walton, of Orlando, Fla., with the intention of going to Richmond and taking the editorial charge of the paper, has accepted a proposition from Judge Grant E. Lilly, owner and editor of the Madisonian, a rival local paper, and has sold out 10 c k, stock and barrel to him. Col. Walton will therefore remain in Lexington, and continue as contributing editor to the Lexington Herald. It is understood to be Judge Lilly's intention to consolidate the Climax and Madisonian and thus enlarge his field of operation. Since establishing the Madisonian two years ago Judge Lilly, who is an able lawyer and forceful writer, has made quite a success of that paper, and by consolidating with it the Climax, he hopes to largely increase his journalistic prestige in the Madison county capital.—Interior Journal.

CONSOLIDATE.

The consolidation of the Madisonian and the Climax, the well-known Richmond weeklies, will make a strong newspaper. Hon. Grant Lilly, who launched the Madisonian, and has been its editor all the time, is one of the State's best thinkers and writers on topics of interest to the people of all classes. Sterling Advocate.

CLIMAX-MADISONIAN

The oldest and the youngest of Richmond's news carriers were joined together in wholly business bonds this week. May joy, peace and prosperity be theirs as they tread the uneven path of the newsy.—Berea Citizen.

JUDGE LILLY BUYS CLIMAX.

Judge Grant E. Lilly has purchased the controlling interest in the Richmond Climax and will consolidate it with his own paper, The Madisonian, the change being effective Oct. 1st. Mr. Lilly will edit the paper, while Dr. White will continue as secretary and book-keeper of the company. The consolidation is a good movement, as it narrows the field from four back to its old number of three newspapers. We wish the new firm the best of luck.—Register.

AN ERROR OF THE CLIMAX.

Our friends of the Climax made a mistake in their article stating that in consolidating his paper with the Climax, Judge Lilly "grasped the opportunity to purchase an interest in the oldest paper in town." The Register lays claim to seniority of years in the local journalistic world by a long margin. It was established during the Civil War as the Register and has been published continuously since under the name. For ten or twelve years it was the only paper in Richmond, the Herald being established at the end of that period. Later on the Herald became defunct and was re-organized under the name of the Climax, which it has worn down to this time. The Register, however, is one of the few weekly papers in Kentucky that has a Civil War birth date and was the pioneer in Madison county without competition for many years.—Register.

We are not much concerned about our age. What we want to do is to accomplish all the good we can for Richmond, Madison county and ourselves.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

THE LAST GREAT EUROPEAN WAR.

History repeats itself—but with variations. A hundred years ago France alone, under the leadership of Napoleon, faced Germany, Austria, Italy, Russia, and Great Britain—AND WON.

At thirty-six, Napoleon had conquered every nation of Europe and in the battle of Austerlitz in 1805, practically brought the continent under the subjection of the French army. Then Austria, Germany and Russia formed the great coalition against France, only to be beaten in battle after battle until they were forced to sue for peace. England, thanks to her impregnable navy, was the only nation not forced to acknowledge Napoleon's rule.

It was the snow covered steeps of Russia rather than the military science of Europe that finally turned the tide against him.

The present European crisis gives a particular opportuneness to the offer of Napoleon's Memoirs, announcement of which is made in another column of this paper. Few books throw a more illuminating and interesting light on the underlying causes of those years of conflict than the fascinating story of the man whose meteoric career left Europe sown with the seeds of discontent.

"Eventually," said Napoleon, "Russia will rule the world." The present conflict will go far towards determining the truth of that prophecy, and day by day it will furnish an absorbing illustration of the advance which has been made in the art of warfare since the days, only a century ago, when France alone had Europe at her feet.

Napoleon's Memoirs, written by his private secretary, Baron DeMeneval, will give you a clearer insight into that tremendous upheaval of Europe which the present crisis seems destined to reproduce.

We were fortunate in securing the story of "The Marshal," appearing exclusively in our paper. It is a beautiful story of French history in the time of Napoleon. Our readers are greatly pleased with it. The Climax-Madisonian will always give you the best.

Beautiful, Daring Western Girls.

In no part of the habitable globe are there better lady riders than can be found in the West. A girl must be able to ride if she wants to visit her neighbors often. And how some of these young creatures can manage a horse! What pictures of beauty, daring and heartiness are as they come dashing along at full speed, playing games, chasing each other or racing just for fun. Indeed, horsemanship is as common and easy a pastime to a "wild Western girl" as trolley riding is to a city girl.

The Western girl goes everywhere on horseback. She can join a set of equine quadrilles or Virginia reel and gallop 20 miles on an errand without feeling the slightest fatigue. She "keeps company," goes to school, visits her "next door neighbor" (maybe 15 miles away), all on the back of her favorite pony. Yes, the Western girl can certainly ride, as you will readily perceive when you witness the performance of the bevy of Western Beauties with Kit Carson's Buffalo Ranch Three-Ring Wild West Circus. Watch them in the Hippodrome Races; note their skill and fearlessness; be enchanted by their beauty, spell-bound by their achievements and awakened to the pleasure and enjoyment of the competition by their silvery, ringing laughter.

There are many things worth seeing with this splendid attraction, but not one prettier or more likely to be a gratifying afterthought in your memory than the lovely wild Western girl, with sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks, who flashed by you on the back of a plunging steed. Will exhibit at Richmond afternoon and night, on Tuesday, Oct. 20. adv

Burglars Make Big Haul.

Burglars blew a safe at the store of David Prewitt and William Finnell, nine miles from Lexington, just over the line in Clark county, and secured $250 in money and about 1,500 stamps. No clue has yet been found, except that they are confident that it was done by professionals. Bloodhounds were put on their trail, but were unable to make any headway.
